AUDIO CD TRACK INDEX	AUDIO TRACK #	DESCRIPTION
1-Apr25-942869.wav	1	Recording #1 from April 25, 2024. Recording was conducted by Plaintiff Brian David Hill once he learned from his mother that his Probation Officer was conducting a home visit. Brian Hill was compelled (would have been violated if he had not turned over his cell phone) to turn over his phone while he was recording the conversation with his probation officer Defendant USPO Haylea Workman and the bald headed supervisor (pictured in Exhibit 6). However the supervisor saved the recording which ended the conversation recording. This recording was saved by the bald headed supervisor Probation Officer. This was after he took the phone along with Haylea, and realized it was recording, he saved the recording which stopped the phone from further recording unless he wanted to record it any further. He did not delete the recording, did not cancel the recording, and he did not ask to have the recording deleted. He consented to that recording and consented to further recording since Plaintiff was compelled to turn over his phone while Plaintiff was recording.

He said around 50 seconds into the recording: " Your welcome to record me, you don't need to turn off the...flip off the app. Your free to do that if you want to. " He gave the Plaintiff consent to record the conversation. Roberta Hill was also involved in the conversation as well. Roberta Hill is Plaintiff's mother. Roberta Hill consented to the recording of the conversation and knew that Plaintiff was recording the home visit with Probation Officer
